JUNIOR HOMESTAY PROGRAM
JUNIOR PROGRAM AT SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

young learners programs @ IH SAN DIEGO

International House San Diego is excited to offer several unique educational and fun-filled programs for young learners. These programs are affiliated with and held to the standards of the IHWO, an organization that insists on the highest degree of educational excellence. We ensure the quality of our classes with experienced teachers who are qualified in both language instruction and working with children and young adults.

International House San Diego operates two separate programs: the summer and winter Junior Programs with homestay accommodation; and the Junior Program SDSU, a summer residential program held on the campus of San Diego State University.

All of the Young Learner programs offered by International House San Diego offer the opportunity to learn English in a natural and immersive setting. All English programs provide communicative and student-centered classes that give plenty of opportunity to practice the language.

The integrated activity programs are designed to offer both educational and fun opportunities for the students to get the most out of their program. Trips to beaches and amusement parks are combined with visits to museums and historical sights, along with lots of fun games where students can make friends to last a lifetime.

IH World Organization

International House San Diego is a member of the International House World Organization, an educational trust founded in 1953 by John and Brita Haycraft.

Their aim was to raise the standards of language teaching world-wide and this aim has remained central to the organization ever since.

Over fifty years later, the network of schools affiliated with International House has grown to over 140 which are located in more than 47 different countries, creating a truly unique, global organization. As opposed to a franchise, IH is organized as a charitable trust with member schools under supervision from IH headquarters in London. This forms part of the International House commitment to ensuring the highest levels of language training and the delivery of excellence both inside and outside the classroom.
